

FRANKFURT BUSINESS TRAVEL CITY GUIDE

OVERVIEW

Frankfurt is the business and financial centre of Germany. It is also Germany's largest city in the state of Hessen. The City is known for its futuristic skyline. Frankfurt Main Airport (FRA) is the busiest airport in Germany.

Frankfurt is home to the European Central Bank and the German Stock Exchange.

Frankfurt is the 5th largest city in Germany.

MAIN AIRPORTS

Frankfurt has Two Airports.

1. Frankfurt am Main Airport (FRA) is the main airport in Frankfurt

This airport is the major international Airport located 22km South West of the City Centre. Journey times by taxi/car to and from the city centre are around 20-25min.

The long-distance train station connects the airport with all of Germany and other European countries. And with local public transport you can get to the airport quickly and easily from the Rhine-Main area.

Lufthansa Express Rail Check in online or mobile from 23 hours before departure of the train and check in your luggage on arrival at Frankfurt Airport in Terminal 1 to your destination. Please click here for further details: : <https://www.frankfurt-airport.com>

Bus transport is available via public bus services, Lufthansa Express Bus Service and Hotel shuttles, please click here for more information: <https://www.frankfurt-airport.com>

Taxis are available around the clock at both terminals and the long-distance train station.

When arriving at Frankfurt Airport, tell the taxi driver the name of your airline. You will then be taken to the right terminal and dropped off at the curb as close as possible to your check-in counter.

The trip from Frankfurt city centre to the airport (and vice versa) takes between 20 and 30 minutes, depending on traffic.

Large-capacity taxis for up to seven persons are also available in the Frankfurt area.

Costs are around €35.00 each way. Uber also operates in and around Frankfurt.

2. Frankfurt Hahn Airport (HHN)

Frankfurt-Hahn Airport is situated in the west of Germany between the cities of Frankfurt am Main and Luxembourg City. This airport is mainly used by low-cost carriers such as Ryanair and Wizz Air.

Frankfurt Hahn Airport is located west of Frankfurt and Northeast of Luxemburg City. This airport has only one terminal with minimal shops.

This airport is located 125km approximately 1H30 from Frankfurt City Centre.

There are no rail connections at this airport, however there is a good bus service to and from Frankfurt City, but the journey time can be almost 2 hours including stops!

The distance between the airport and the city of Frankfurt is quite a way therefore a taxi ride to Frankfurt am Main is quite expensive. The price is about € 175, and a journey can take up to 1 hour and 30 minutes.

If you want to travel by taxi from Frankfurt-Hahn Airport to Luxembourg City, the costs are about € 165.

Book your taxi at Frankfurt-Hahn Airport through TaxiTender, an online booking platform for reliable and reasonable priced airport transfers. No stress, your driver meets you inside the airport, all rates are inclusive, and cancellation is free.

GETTING AROUND THE CITY

The best way move around Frankfurt is to use the U-Bahn Metro service which is underground and the overground trains & trams.

The Metro Stations can be identified by a white U on a blue background sign. The trains run from 4am until 2am.

There are also 42 Bus lines around Frankfurt running from 4am until 2am

If planned well, Frankfurt is a very walkable city! All public transport options are safe and clean to use.

RECOMMENDED ACCOMMODATION

3* Star hotels for the city are:

Moxy Frankfurt City Centre: Average cost €75.00 per room per night including breakfast. Hampton by Hilton Frankfurt City Centre: Average cost €70.00 per room per night including breakfast.

4* Star hotels for the city are:

Novotel Frankfurt City Centre: Average cost €75.00 per room per night including breakfast. Maritim Hotel Frankfurt: Average cost €85.00 per room per night including breakfast

5* Star hotels for the city are:

Jumeriah Frankfurt Hotel: Average cost €210.00 per room per night including breakfast. Steigenberger Frankfurter Hof: Average cost €255.00 per room per night including breakfast.

Parking at city centre hotels is quite rare and can be very expensive. Nevertheless, it can be arranged, just make the request with your Principal Business Travel Consultant.

NIGHTLIFE

Now do not go thinking that because of Frankfurt's Financial reputation it means that it is all hotel bars and expensive bottles of wine! In fact, the city is positively buzzing with places to eat out or just grab a drink. Whether you like a nice speakeasy type joint or want to catch a live show Frankfurt has it covered.

Frankfurt has as huge Jazz scene with some of the best venues located around Kleine Bockenheimer Strasse otherwise known as Jazzgasse (Jazz Alley!)

Some of the best restaurants for a business dinner in Frankfurt are:

Restaurant Medici – Mediterranean Fine Dining

Kabuki Frankfurt – Steakhouse, Japanese

Lafleur – European Cuisine

Lohninger – Austrian Cuisine

HOW TO SPEND AN AFTERNOON

If you do have some spare time whilst in Frankfurt or on that rare occasion a meeting finishes early here are a few options for passing the time.

Stadel Museum, 700 Years of art in one location! Considered one of the finest art museums in the world! Collections from the 14th Century through to the present day.

Main Tower is one of the highest buildings in Frankfurt. You can climb to the top of this 200-metre building (or take the lift up the first 190 metres and walk the last 10) for incomparable views of the city.

Have a wander around the Romer which is Frankfurt's old city. Totally reconstructed to its former glory due to its complete destruction during World War 2.

